Weather forecast: Rain Thursday, fair Friday. Morgan will pitch today for Salt Lake. Mears is likely to do the honors for Helena. Game called at 3:30 o'clock.

SCORE-Salt Lake, 9; Helena, 2.

WO of the big features of Salt Lake's baseball opening yesterday were the utter discrediting of the weather man as a prognosticator and the establishing of the reliability of that great authority, "Buck Weaver on Baseball." It was this authoritative work expounded by its author that enabled Dick Cooley to feel absolutely confident of winning the first game with Helena, and it all came out even more satisfactorily than the predictions

The only simon pure miracle of the day, however, was worked by a youth of slight stature named Menges, who works for Helena. It was startling enough to partially console Manager Irby for the less of the game. In the last half of the sixth Pendleton hit a red hot liner down the third base line and Menges, diving at least seven feet horizontally like an acrobat, grabbed the ball, fell to the ground, rolled over twice and got up holding the ball.

If Menges had made that catch on a big league diamond he would be famous all over the United States today.

If Menges had made that catch on a big league diamond he would be famous all over the United States today.

Despite forbidding weather, 1190 loval Forlier. Dressan picked up Baker's slow fans passed through the gates of Cooley park and the game interested them so much that scarcely one left until the missh.

Drizzling rain began is fall almost as soon as the game was begun, so as soon as the game was begun to the missh.

In the fourth inning Helena players discovered that trying to steal bases on Buck Weaver is a most unprofitable indertaking. The reason they did not discover that fact scener was because none of them had attempted it. Dressan bunted and Menges's wild throw let was caught in this liming trying to steal bases on Milliay were both caught in this liming trying to steal second. Thompson wisely refrained from attempting it and reached home. Weaver's throwing ment that fans yesterday pronounced him file class of the league behind the hat. The game was nearly over before Brick Deversanx got hit by a pitched ball. Fans expected if long before nut when our followed and also got hit. Van walked up to the plate prepared to dodge. Instead of getting hit he went out in attempting to stretch a single into a two-begger. The game was a good one despite the drived.

OGDEN, April 24.—Coming from behind when the Ogden club was leading by four runs. Great Falls succeeded in tying up the count in the ninth tuning of the day's opening game of the Union association, and in spite of the even break it was necessary to call the game on account of rain. Owing to a discrepancy in the ecoring the impression first went out among the fans that the visitors had won by a score of 5 to 7, but the official figures now atand 8 to 8.

Telayed by rain, which threatened to not the game completely out of the question, the contest did not get rully underway until 4 o'clock. Then, with a chill wind blowing and impending storm clouds overhead, the players and spectators. Special to The Tribune

An automobile parade through the busi-ness district, with the Ogden high school drum and bugie corps, featured the pre-liminaries. Mayor A. G. Fell was present and cast the first ball.

White Sox Beat Naps. Irby By International News Service

By International News Service.

CLEVELAND, April 24.—Bill Lange today pitched the Sox to the top of the column and the task was an easy one.
The White Sox trimmed the Naps, 6 to 1.
Lange never was in serious trouble,
though he was nicked for nine safe blows.
Airtight support was accorded Bill all the way. Not until the seventh did the Naps muster up courage to compile a tally, at which time the Sax had five and were going strong. Lefty George was meat from the first. He yielded one sun in the first after two were out and was subjected to nervous spells right up to the bloff-off in the fifth. When Lefty was chased in the fifth, without waiting for the finish of the round, he had been nicked eleven times for five tailies.
Blanding sat in for George and allowed only a couple of hits.
